THE SWING KINGS are a highly versatile dance band featuring an extensive playlist. They easily transition from rockin' swing to the finesse of a traditional 40's Big Band or venture deep into Sinatra-land with lush ballads and famous swingin' arrangements. This band is also well-versed in contemporary dance music, i.e., Latin, R & B, Disco, Rock and Funk. THE SWING KINGS' love for all music brings these accomplished musicians together to create an exciting and diverse show. Their reputation for energetic and visually-appealing entertainment stands as a testament to these fine artists. From casino showrooms, galas, award shows, corporate events, private parties and West Coast concerts and night clubs, THE SWING KINGS guarantee to stir the romantic heart and move your dancin' feet!

The band members, who are counted among some of the most accomplished and respected West Coast musicians, have performed with such musical greats as: Ray Charles, Burt Bacharach, Joe Cocker, Buddy Rich, Patti La Belle, Jackson Browne, Johnny Mathis, Brian Setzer, Harry James, Count Basie, etc. In their eight year history, THE SWING KINGS have performed coast to coast, thrilling audiences with their mastery of numerous musical styles. Singer and bandleader, Ron Alan, can croon a Sinatra classic as well as belt out a blues or contemporary dance favorite. Other members are spotlighted as they sing their specialties or add soaring vocal harmonies.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Warm greetings to everyone gathered in Los Angeles for the Oscar De La Hoya Foundation's second annual Evening of Champions. I am pleased to join you in congratulating Jim Lampley and Sylvester Stallone as they receive this year's Champions of Children Award.

Our children are our hope for profound responsibility. As we approach the new century, we must all pledge to give our children the support, encouragement, and opportunity to grow into healthy, happy, responsible adults. We must help to nurture and guide them, help them to realize their potential, and instill in them the desire to achieve their dreams.

I commend all those participants of Champions for helping to lead our children to a positive alternative to violence and substance abuse, you are helping to shape their future. I applaud each of you for your commitment to our children.

Best wishes for a memorable evening.

The Swing Kings Return

The word is in and these guys are hot.

Boy! Do they know how to hold a crowd. The leader, Ron, gets down with the audience and talks and croons and gets into the swing of things!

Don't miss the Swing Kings the next time they play in Avalon. It's a class act, and they will thrill you and even get you dancing. Yes, you will be dancing as you never danced before!

Swing Kings Wows Avalon and they are returning October 25 & 26

Every time these guys perform the word on the street gets better and better. Dressed to the nines all the way down to their wings tips, the fabulous Swing Kings look as good as they sound.

It is perfectly clear the Island has caught on to "Swing King Fever."

Band leader, Ron Alan has brought together some of the top musicians in the industry and recreated the good-time music of the '40s and '30s. Dressed in double-breasted pinstriped suits and wing tipped shoes, their music doubles your pleasure, doubles your fun with variety and virtuosity.

While playing last month, to a packed house at The Avalon Club, located in the Glenmore Plaza Hotel, the nine piece Swing Kings played to familiar faces from our local Sheriff's Department, City Council, and the Woman's Club. Even the Mayor and his wife have become regular fans. The people in the streets, young and old, couldn't resist dancing to the fabulous beat.

audiences to a time when gangsters roamed the backrooms of speakeasies and lovers glided effortlessly across ballroom dance floors.

The "Swing Kings" are proud to bring back this goodtime music and invite you to dance and enjoy the excitement and romance of those times at the Club, located in the Plaza Hotel.

It is perfectly clear the Island has caught on to "Swing King Fever." Get your dancing shoes out

The word is in and these guys are hot. Lead singer and bandleader Ron Alan has packed his crew with an allstar lineup. His band mates have played with such musical greats Elvis Presley, Paul McCartney, Michael Jackson, Natalie Cole, Bruce Springsteen, Wayne Newton and Rod Stewart.

The Swing Kings are sure to take you back to the wild days of swing. Grab your wing tips.
